COMMISSIONERS' REPORT.

KEENE, N. H., Jan. 2, 1893.

To the Citizens of Cheshire County:

We herewith submit a report of the financial condition and business affairs of the county under the supervision of the county commissioners, together with the reports of the respective county officers for the term ending December 31, 1892.

The changes in the law by the last legislature, requires the annual reports to be made up to January 1, instead of May 1, as previously had been done. We therefore made no report last May, which makes it necessary to include the whole time from May 1, 1891, or a period of one and two-thirds years. This will make a larger document, as well as much larger aggregate amounts in footings, than in previous reports.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

The interest-bearing debt is $25,000. Rate of interest, four per cent. Cash in the treasurer's hands available for current expenses until the next tax receipts come in, or about October 1st, $28,150.37. As this report covers a period of twenty months, we can only approximate a comparative statement of annual expenditures and treasury balance, but making a careful estimate of the expenditure from the time of this report up to the 1st of October next, convinces us that we have on hand a cash reserve, above the actual amount required to meet expenses, of several thousand dollars, which in the near future may be applied to the reduction of the county debt.

For several years the county has incurred unusual expenses in needed improvements upon the jail grounds, in repainting the court house inside and out, indexing and filing papers in probate office, in the erection at the county farm of a new hospital and laundry buildings, and a new ell to the superintendent's house, and supplying new steam radiators to the almshouse, the old ones having become unsafe and worthless. There would seem to be but little prospect of any new buildings or extensive repairs being needed for some time to come.

We are gratified to be able to report a decrease in general county expenses, and especially for the outside poor throughout the county.

COUNTY FARM AND ALMSHOUSE.

This institution has remained in charge of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Pierce, as superintendent and matron, with W. W. Wilber as assistant superintendent, and Miss Jennie Pierce and Miss Alice Goodell as assistant matrons. Under their united care every department of the institution has been faithfully provided for. The farm has produced bountiful crops, and is being brought under a high state of cultivation. There has been quite a revenue from the sale of cream, which amounts to nearly $1000 during the twenty months. For some time it has been apparent that extensive repairs would have to be made on the ell part of the superintendent's house, or a new one erected in its place. After making careful estimates, we were satisfied it would cost about as much to repair the old as to erect a new building. Therefore we have put a new building in place of the old, adding very much to the general appearance of the place, and more to the convenience and comfort of the occupants. Its cost is given in another place.

OUTSIDE POOR.

The cost of support of the outside poor has been materially reduced since our last report, the amount for the twenty months being comparatively much less than for the previous year, while the amount paid for dependent soldiers and their families during that time is less than for the previous year.

This gratifying result has been brought about in part by the hearty coöperation of the overseers of poor in the several towns with the commissioners, in curtailing expenses and causing removals to the farm. If the poor, generally, were more ready to accept the hospitalities of the almshouse, we think they would be better cared for, at less expense, than at private places in their towns.

JAIL AND HOUSE OF CORRECTION.

This institution has remained in charge of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chapin, who have conducted its affairs in their usual orderly and efficient manner. As usual, a large part of the commitments have been for drunkenness. The usual supply of wood has been kept in the jail shed, which is furnished to paupers.

PROBATE OFFICE.

Since our last report, the work of refiling and indexing the documents in this office has been completed; and, though done at considerable expense, we believe the county will be well satisfied with the work. In its furnishings and the completeness of arrangements for probate office work, it is among the very best to be found. Any document in this office, however ancient, can be found at a moment's notice. The work is not likely to need any revision in the future.

About a year ago, our associate in office, Mr. J. B. Abbott, was removed by death. Elbridge Kingsbury was appointed to fill out the unexpired part of his term. In the death of Mr. Abbott, the board of commissioners lost a genial and valued member, and the county a faithful and efficient public officer.

GEORGE G. DAVIS,
ELBRIDGE KINGSBURY,
PERLEY E. FOX,
County Commissioners.

WESTMORELAND, Jan. 1, 1893.

I hereby certify that the foregoing statements pertaining to the county farm and almshouse, the receipts and disbursements, the average cost per week for each inmate, the names and number of days each has been supported, are correct.

The method by which the average cost per week for each inmate is ascertained, is clearly shown by the statement exhibiting the average cost per capita.

HENRY D. PIERCE,
Supt. Cheshire County Farm.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners for Cheshire County:

GENTLEMEN,—I herewith submit my report for the term commencing May 1, 1891, and ending December 31, 1892.

The farm for the year has produced bountiful crops, the corn crop being one of the largest ever raised, and of fine quality. There was a short hay crop, compared with former years, but the large amount of corn fodder will go far to make up this deficiency. The number of neat stock remains about the same, although we believe of a superior grade for the purposes of the farm. The cream business has been continued, and we think to the advantage of the county. A nice pair of horses have been purchased for use on the farm. The new ell built the past season to take the place of the old and illy constructed one, that had become almost unfit for use, is a great and much needed improvement.

The number of inmates has remained about the same, most of them being old and infirm when admitted, and requiring much care. There has been a large number of deaths — twenty-two during the last twenty months. Dr. J. A. Craig continues as attending physician, and Rev. G. W. Ruland as chaplain, both of whom have rendered efficient and satisfactory services.

We desire to express our thanks to those generous-hearted persons of Keene and other places who have contributed presents of various kinds to the poor and unfortunate, carrying, as it does, gladness to the hearts of those who see but little of the sunshine of life.

In closing permit me, gentlemen, to thank you for your cordial sympathy and words of encouragement during the term just closed.

Respectfully submitted,

H. D. PIERCE,
Superintendent.

PHYSICIAN'S REPORT.

To the Honorable Commissioners for Cheshire County:

GENTLEMEN,—I herewith submit my report for the past twenty months as physician to Cheshire county almshouse.

The general health of the inmates was never better than at this time. The sanitary condition of the buildings is very good, and it is to the credit of the institution that no cases of preventable diseases have occurred. During nearly eight years of continuous practice, I have never seen a typical case of typhoid fever or diphtheria.

Sixty per cent. of the sickness occurs in persons who contracted disease prior to their admittance, or were admitted while convalescent. About eight per cent. of the above is is from injuries and diseased limbs.

Two epidemics of la grippe invaded the household; the first in the early months of 1891 and the second in January, 1892. Very few of the inmates escaped the disease during the first epidemic, but, notwithstanding the impaired constitutions and extreme age, and the depressing effects of the disease, the death rate was less than anticipated. Nevertheless, it materially lessened the vitality of many in its insidious effects, and was a potent factor in increasing our death rate.

I have been efficiently supplemented in my efforts by the superintendent, Mr. Henry D. Pierce, wife and daughters. To them is due kindly mention for their unfailing devotion and loyalty to duty in carrying out all particulars that could conduce to the efficiency of treatment, comfort and welfare of the afflicted.

Inmates at this institution have the benefit of plenty of well cooked, substantial food, clean and warm apartments, and comfortable beds and bedding, and environment that will compare favorably with any well regulated institution of like intentions.

No serious accidents have occurred.

Twenty-one deaths have occured, all but four being aged people. One case of suicide, in the person of David Marsh, death caused by hanging.

In conclusion I thank the officers for courtesy extended, and the commissioners for promptness and kindness.

J. A. CRAIG, M. D.

Westmoreland, December 31, 1892.

REPORT OF CHAPLAIN.

To the Commissioners:—

Gentlemen,—I herewith submit a brief statement as chaplain of the Cheshire county almshouse. Since May 1st, 1891, the date of my last report, I have held a gospel service on every alternate sabbath in the commodious chapel at 4 o'clock p. m. The forty or more men and women who seem to gladly avail themselves of this privilege are thus permitted to hear the holy scriptures read and explained. They enjoy the singing of the gospel hymns. Their behavior is almost uniformly becoming to a place of worship on the Lord's day. There is nothing to distract their attention from the real object to be gained by meeting for instruction, prayer and praise. The care and obligation upon those in charge is so exacting and constant that they could not well be absent to attend church, so the meetings are a privilege and a help to them. In my relation to the sick and aged ones, I am confident that the message and promise has often been of real comfort to them. The dying testimony of some who have ended their days here, since my last annual report, assures me that the labor is not in vain. I have been treated by the utmost courtesy by Mr. and Mrs. Pierce and their helpful daughters, and the present matron, Miss Alice Goodell, in my visits to carefully inspect the condition and treatment of the insane and helpless ones. I do not hesitate to commend the treatment and methods used. No one can estimate the amount of patience, courage and love for human nature necessary in this home unless they have made careful and repeated observation.

I think I am fully justified in the statement that the gospel is as fully vindicated and needed here as among the more favored classes in other and different homes and chapels. The light and sweetness of christianity is more welcome, possibly, because of the shadows and bitterness which has marked their years before. It is creditable to the county of Cheshire that these religious services are so sustained. The churches of Keene very kindly remembered those in need with acceptable presents, brought by Mrs. Sprague and Mrs. Kirk. The annual Christmas tree bore fruit and candy for each one. Miss Clara Bill, Miss Lois W. Leach and Miss Gertrude Cobb have kindly aided Miss Nellie Pierce in playing the organ.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. W. RULAND,
Chaplain.

Parkhill, December 31, 1892.

SOLICITOR'S REPORT.

To the Honorable Board of Commissioners:

I herewith submit my report for the twenty months ending December 31, 1892.

The only civil suit against the county is that of Robert P. Leonard, which is still pending.

Frank Howard, mentioned in my last report as having escaped from jail, was retaken, and at the October term, 1891, was sentenced to two years in state prison.

At the same time, Edward Dugan and Thomas Toughey were sentenced to the house of correction for assault; John Worrell to state prison for two years for larceny; James Russell the same for burglary; and Lewis E. Banyea, Laurence Gilbo and George Auger, were indicted for murder; Banyea was found guilty of aggravated assault, and Gilbo of simple assault, and both sentenced to terms in the house of correction. Auger was acquitted.

At the April term, 1892, John Brunell was indicted for murder, plead guilty to murder in the second degree, and was sentenced to thirty years in state prison; George F. Hopkins was sentenced to six months in the house of correction for larceny; and C. H. Hartwell to four months for receiving a part of the goods stolen.

At the October term, 1892, Eugene H. Drury was sentenced to ten months in the house of correction for larceny; John Fulton to one year in house of correction for larceny; and Fayette H. Haskins, indicted for breaking and entering and making an assault, was sentenced to two years in state prison.

Various persons have been prosecuted in the supreme and police courts for minor offences.

No money belonging to the county has come into my hands.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES H. HERSEY,
Solicitor.

W. R. PORTER,
Treasurer.

Keene, December 31, 1892.

CHESHIRE ss.

We hereby certify that we have examined the foregoing account of Walter R. Porter, county treasurer, for the term commencing May 1, 1891, and ending December 31, 1892, and the orders, notes and payments named therein, we find them properly cast and legally vouched for, and a balance in the treasury of twenty-eight thousand one hundred and fifty dollars and thirty-seven cents.
